- Sometimes she wants to be alone

MOTIVATIONS:

Alexa has had roommates since freshmen year of college (about 6 years now). She was lucky enough that after finishing college, she was able to move in with her two best friends who also had jobs in San Francisco. She trusts them, but it's hard to balance friendship when it comes down to the nitty gritty such as paying rent on time. She doesn't see herself not living with roommates anytime soon.
